village promised by his wife, and further litigation avoided etc re D.C. Bangalore, has reported in his letter dated 8/1/44 that Mr. Appanna has mentioned in his Statement recorded on 26/4/43 before the Amildar, that the land bearing Sy No. 58 promised by him has also gone to the share of his Sons and that he would therefore give a cash endowment of Rs 300/- in exchange for the land as an outright gift for the renovation of the Temple, and that no Services need be Conducted on that account. The D.C. has stated that the Amount has already been credited to the Temple funds in the Taluk Treasury by Mr. Appanna on 26/4/43. It is also seen from the records that the Dharmadarsi of the Temple have unanimously resolved that the gift be accepted with thanks and the amount utilised for the renovation of the Temple as desired by the donor. The local officers have recommended that the cash gift of Rs 300/- be accepted and the question of accepting the land endowment dropped. The H.C. agrees with the D.C. in the above views and requests Sanction to the acceptance of the Cash gift of Rs 300/- offered by Mr Appanna.

Subject:- Acceptance of cash endowment of Rs.300/- by Mr.Appanna - in lieu of 2 acres of land - in favour of Sri Vallabharayaswami temple at Vasanthapur - Bangalore South Taluk

Sir

With reference to your letter No.22[illegible]2/Muz.195-39-2, dated 19th April 1940, stating that it is desirable to accept the gift of two acres of land offered by Mr.Appanna, in favour of the Sri Vallabharayaswami temple at Vasanthapur, Bangalore.South Taluk, I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of letter No.Muz.1042/34-35, dated 8th January 1944, received from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, stating that Mr.Appanna did not actually give the land, as it was said to have gone to the share of his sons, but that he paid Rs.300/- in exchange for the land as an outright gift for the renovation of the temple in question, and that this has been agreed to by the Dharmadarsis and supported by the local officers. The Deputy Commissioner, recommends that the cash gift of Rs.300/- may be accepted and the question of accepting the land endowment dropped. I agree with the Deputy Commissioner, as it avoids Civil litigation, and request that sanction of Government, may be kindly obtained to the above recommendation.

The connected file of records received from the Deputy Commissioner is transmitted herewith for reference and return when done with.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

M. N. Ananda Rao
Senior Assistant Commissioner for Muzrai Commissioner

With Referring to the correspondence ending with your memo No.C.733/36-37 dated 2nd May 1940, on the above subject, I have the honour to state that it is gathered from the report and records received from the Sub Division Officer, Bangalore Sub Division, that Mr.Appanna husband of Ramakka who promised to give two acres of land out of S.No.58/3 in lieu of S.No.52/1 of Sarakki village promised by his wife for the benefit of the above temple did not actually give the land and that when he was definitely tackled by the Amildar on 20th April 1943, Mr.Appanna appears to have said that since the promised land has also gone to the share of his sons, he would pay a cash endowment of Rs.300/- in exchange for the land as an outright gift for the renovation of the temple and that no services need be conducted in the temple on this account. The amount is also seen to have been credited to the Temple funds in the Taluk Treasury by Mr.Appanna on 26th April 1943. The Dharmadarsis of the temple have resolved in a meeting held on 24th May 1943, that the gift of Rs.300/- offered by Mr. Appanna be accepted with thanks and that it be utilised for the renovation of the temple as desired by the donor rather than courting needless litigation by accepting the disputed land gift. The local officers also recommend the acceptance of the proposal made by the Dharmadarsis of the temple. The resolution of the Temple Dharmadarsis is enclosed in the file in original. In the circumstances detailed therein and in view of the recommendation made by the local officers, I think the cash gift of Rs.300/- offered and credited by Mr.Appanna of Sarakki may be accepted and the question of accepting the land endowment dropped. On receipt of your approval to the above proposal, I shall accept the gift made by Mr.Appanna,
